

The President's Message

And, we're off!

Thank you to the 80 or so members, guests, scholarship recipients and their friends and family who attended our amazing Kick-Off meeting last week. Genevieve Evans Taylor was a fantastic speaker and inspired me to be more intentional about the kind of leader I want to be as a woman. And of course hearing from the Tech Trek girls is always a highlight. Pictures inside!

Last month I mentioned the areas of focus we came up with at our planning meeting. I will report on them every month so we can keep on top of our progress:

Get Out The Vote (GOTV). Many of our members have been contributing to these efforts in so many ways! First of all, six of our members are running for local office. Learn more about them inside, as they were invited to submit a statement about their candidacy. We need more women in office, and I am so excited to see so much involvement from our members. Thank you, ladies!!

Other members have been volunteering for voter registration tables around town, canvassing, writing postcards, writing checks, and even taking it to the streets for women's rights. AAUW is a non-partisan organization that supports positions related to our mission, equity for women and girls. Women and the men who love them have really stepped up. Look for some photos inside!

Revamping Communication and Marketing Materials. Our new tri-fold membership brochure is great! Pick one up at the Farmer's Market next weekend or at Author's Day. We didn't receive any "Member News," but I will save space for it until the end of the year and see if people are using it. We will distribute an addendum to the directory that includes new members.

Fundraising. Authors' Day is this month, our main fundraiser for the year. Diana Dingler and her team have put together another fabulous event. Can't come? Consider sponsoring a CSUCI student or recent grad. Contact me for details.

Axxess Books are here! Still $30. AAUW keeps $10 and you can save 100s during the year on dining and other shopping. They make great gifts!

CSUCI Engagement. We are delighted with how many students, staff, and faculty attended the Kick-Off. Many joined, and we continue to build our relationship with students to help support activities on campus that promote pay equity, Title IX, and other areas of interest.

Thanks for reading and for everything you do for this organization and its mission.

Best, Gloria

Can you host a Tech Trek Camp Director?

The annual meeting of the Tech Trek camp directors and treasurers is to be held in Simi Valley October 26th and 27th. Since the attendees come from a distance, we are inquiring if any of our Branch members would be able to host a visitor on the Friday and/or Saturday nights. Do you have room for a guest?

Please confirm to Linda Stinebaugh lstinebaugh@verizon.net

Knowledge Bowl is Coming!!

March 6, 13, and 20, 2019

How did you do with the Knowledge Bowl 2018 questions in the September Beacon? Try these from our 2017 competition:

- * Which two U.S. states are closest to the tropic of Cancer? (Hawaii & Florida)
- * What is the reciprocal of a wave's period? (It's frequency)
- * What one-time member of the legal staff of the NAACP became a Supreme Court justice in 1967? (Thurgood Marshall)
- * Which of Henry VIII's wives gave birth to the son who became King Edward VI? (Jane Seymour)

Geography, history, math, science, literature, and people are a few of the subjects covered in our program. I am writing and compiling questions for our 2019 competitions and would like your contributions. Send 10-20 questions on your favorite topics to Mary Goldberg at marymgoldberg@gmail.com

Public Policy Matters, by Kathy Long

GOTV, VOTE, WRITE CHECKS, CAMPAIGN, – NOW IS THE TIME!

As the mid-terms approach, it's time to step up advocacy efforts – support your candidates, Get Out The Vote, work on campaigns, make calls, send postcards, WRITE CHECKS and make your voice heard! This is the most critical midterm election we've seen in decades. More women are running for office at all levels – over 82 just in Ventura County! The AAUW is non-partisan, but our work is to support those who help to improve the lives of women and girls, and advance policies to enhance their educational opportunities.

The national AAUW.org is the site for federal information on advocacy positions and opportunities. Emilyslist.org is another great site that supports the election of women at Federal and state levels. VOTE411.org is a League of Women Voters site rich in voting advocacy. Our own AAUW branch is active with postcard campaigns to get out the vote. Now is the time! Let's do this!

We are fortunate to have strong women legislative leadership in California. The CA Women's Legislative Caucus sets yearly priorities and promotes bills to advance same. I thought an update on the success of this year's legislative cycle might be of interest. The following 5 bills have all been enrolled, and the descriptors are condensed portions. You can read the bill in its entirety at leginfo.legislature.ca.gov.

SB 826 (Jackson) This bill, no later than the close of the 2019 calendar year, would require a domestic general corporation or foreign corporation that is a publicly held corporation, as defined, whose principal executive offices, according to the corporation's SEC 10-K form, are located in California to have a minimum of one female, as defined, on its board of directors, as specified. No later than the close of the 2021 calendar year, the bill would increase that required minimum number to 2 female directors if the corporation has 5 directors or to 3 female directors if the corporation has 6 or more directors. The bill would require, on or before specified dates, the Secretary of State to publish various reports on its Internet Web site documenting, among other things, the number of corporations in compliance with these provisions.

AB 2289 (Weber) The bill would find and declare that pregnant and parenting pupils are entitled to accommodations that provide them with the opportunity to succeed academically while protecting their health and the health of their children and would establish specified accommodations as rights of pregnant and parenting pupils of local educational agencies. The bill would include in these established accommodations, among other rights, that a pregnant or parenting pupil is entitled to 8 weeks of parental leave.

SB 1200 (Skinner) Existing law allows a court to issue a gun violence restraining order prohibiting and enjoining a named person from having in his or her custody or control any firearms or ammunition if the person poses a significant danger of causing personal injury to himself, herself, or another by having a firearm or ammunition in his or her custody or control. Existing law establishes a civil restraining order process to accomplish that purpose. This bill would expand the definition of ammunition to include a magazine – multiple ammunition device.

AB 2070 (Reyes) Existing law requires the governing boards of each community college district, the Trustees of the California State University, the Regents of the University of California, and the governing boards of independent postsecondary institutions, to adopt, among other things, detailed and victim-centered policies and protocols, and outreach programs, regarding sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking involving a student that comport with best practices and current professional standards, covering specified topics, including a comprehensive, trauma-informed training program for campus officials involved in investigating and adjudicating sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking cases. This bill would provide that the outreach programming required by this provision would include informing students about specified topics relating to intimate partner and dating violence.

SB 3080 (Gonzalez Fletcher) This bill would prohibit an employer from requiring any applicant for employment or any employee to waive any right, forum, or procedure for a violation of any provision of the California Fair Employment and Housing Act (FEHA) or other specific statutes governing employment, as a condition of employment, continued employment, the receipt of any employment-related benefit, or as a condition of entering into a contractual agreement. The bill would also prohibit an employer from threatening, retaliating or discriminating against, or terminating any applicant for employment or any employee because of the refusal to consent to the waiver of any right, forum, or procedure for a violation of specific statutes governing employment.

Just some highlights – Women leaders rising to the challenge! Again, get out and advocate, participate, and make a difference.

Members Running for Office

Six AAUW Members are running for office in November. We asked each of them to submit 100 words on what she's running for and why, including how her candidacy supports AAUW's mission of advancing equity for women and girls. Responses are included below, alphabetically by office.

Camarillo City Council

Councilmember Charlotte Craven: Before I first ran for City Council I worked to secure housing for women with children and low incomes. In 1983 Jean Scott and I persuaded voters to pass an Article 34 Referendum, allowing the city to “participate” in housing for low income families and seniors.

Currently there are more than 1000 housing units restricted to low income families and seniors, with 100 more to open soon. Some are owner-occupied; some are apartments; all are dispersed throughout the city, indistinguishable from other housing. I insisted on that to avoid the stigma of location on children.

Bev Dransfeldt: As a mother, I will do everything in my power to improve our children's future, and encourage other mothers seeking leadership opportunities. As a councilwoman, I will listen to our community members and increase communication. As a council, we must also be bridge-builders and collaborate with a diverse group of institutions and organizations in our great city.

I believe in having an accessible, transparent government to increase community engagement; expanding the routing and scheduling of public transportation infrastructure; and making Camarillo a place for everyone by ensuring there are spaces for each generation.

My name is Jessica Romero and I am excited to be running for Camarillo City Council. There are several reasons why I decided to run for office, the first being my mother. I watched her go from cleaning houses to working for UCLA as a nurse. She taught me that there is nothing that I can't achieve. Role models matter. Representation matters. I care deeply about Camarillo and all the communities that make up its population. One of my priorities as a councilwoman will be leveling the playing field for future candidates. My other focuses include sustainability and economic viability.

Susan Santangelo has called Camarillo home since 1976 and has worked as a Registered Nurse for 25 years. She believes that Camarillo's small-town community charm can be maintained and fostered with the right vision and leadership. Susan's professional experience makes her very accustomed to making critical decisions that directly affect peoples' lives. Currently, she supervises Health Services at Casa Pacifica. Over her career, Susan has managed large workforces and budgets, navigated complex issues, developed public policy, facilitated open dialogue, and collaborated with multiple stakeholders. Susan's priorities for Camarillo include responsible growth and development, traffic reduction, and supporting the arts.

Members Running for Office (cont'd)

Pleasant Valley School District

Rebecca "Beckie" Cramer: I am running for the PVSD Board of Trustees – the only woman on the ballot. We need parent perspective on our school board, and the only trustee with children in school is stepping down. I am a former U.S. Navy officer now engaged in full-time community service and graduate school through American University. I have served as La Mariposa's PTA President, a Board Director for the kidSTREAM Children's Museum, and I am assistant den leader for Camarillo's first girl den of Cub Scouts. I enjoy participating in AAUW's Women in History program, and would be honored to serve you on our school board. www.beckiecramer.com

Ventura County Community College District

Jeannette Sanchez-Palacios: I am running for Ventura County Community College Trustee, Area 1. The Trustee position combines two areas I have devoted my life to: Public Service and Education. My extensive experience includes working with educators, women's organizations, labor, and businesses to prepare our graduates for successful, high-paying careers right here in Ventura County.

As a mother and former community college student, I understand the benefits and challenges of pursuing higher education. Education has changed over the years; we need a leader who appreciates that students attend community college for different reasons, requiring different options to succeed.
